Welcome Back!

If you have been away this summer, welcome home! It is great to have you back! This has been a lively summer at St. Louis, as those here all summer (God bless you all!) can attest. We’ve had baptisms, weddings, funerals; planning, building, tending; praying, praising and learning. Now, time to get into the Fall swing of things.

Our super school faculty, staff and school board had a great kick-off together on August 27th, brilliantly orchestrated around a ‘play ball!’ theme. And an outstanding team it is! How they pulled together, given the construction and moving of classrooms, to welcome the incoming students so warmly Wednesday September 4th is amazing. The first school Mass of the season is 9:10AM, on Friday September 13th. You are invited!

Our Pastoral Council is kicking off the new season on Monday, September 9th. Two days later Stewardship Council is launching into a new season. The very next day, there is an informational night for our school parents. Things will just keep on rolling out, with the Season’s of Faith kick off next Sunday, September 15th right after the 9:00AM Mass. That week will include a Tithing Committee meeting, a Finance Council meeting, a Baptismal Preparation session, with a Pastoral Care committee meeting the following week. On that topic, Cris Wensel’s job description has expanded. We’ve consolidated two part time positions, Pastoral Associate for Social Justice and Pastoral Associate for Pastoral Care into one full time position. So you will be seeing Cris around campus quite a bit more!

The following week will be the kick off for our Living Faith program. Please note on page 7, we are still looking for teachers and aides for Living Faith. It is a great opportunity to teach and learn all at the same time. Our children and their parents will be SO grateful, as will their pastor! If I can help you make the decision to step up to the plate for Living Faith, or for the Crossroads program, please let me know! Not to leave out our teens, the decision to step up to the plate for Life, or for the Crossroads program, please let me know! Our first Fruit of the Vine program will be on September 24th, a great opportunity to learn about Living Our Strengths. Speaking of such things as naming our gifts and talents and turning them into strengths to share with others (see paragraph above), all our musical forces will also be kicking off a new season this month (see page 4). We are blessed to have some of the best music in the diocese, right here at St. Louis. You are invited to see how you might contribute to the music with which we worship God! While on the topic of music at St. Louis, the Notre Dame Glee Club will be here this Fall for a concert, October 29. Want to assist organizing the event? Please let me know!

So a lot is happening here at St. Louis. I hope and pray you will find how you can become more a part of the action. Peace to you all, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - September 15
The Highlands: Doris Wilmot  Heather Heights: Richard Caruso
First Things First
Very strong language – hate our relatives, and even our own life! It is so hard to convince us not to put self-interest first, that Jesus had to resort to extreme language. If we want to be a disciple; if we want the Christ-life to take root in us; if we want to experience the power of the paschal mystery, passing through death to new life, we can’t be hanging on to family, self-interest, and our possessions tightly. We need to be ready to let them go, experience the cross, and receive them back in our new life. How do you count the cost of faith?

Young Disciples
Recall seeing articles in the bulletin ‘Baptism: Not Just for Infants’? We have been blessed in the last few months to have a number of children climb into the font. Next Saturday at the 4:30 pm Mass, Trenton and Adriana both in our school here at St. Louis, will join their ranks, being baptized and becoming part of our family of faith. Truly, baptism is not just for infants. It is for young children, teens, adults, even senior citizens; anyone ready to profess a faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior, ready to begin a journey of faith with us, ready to enter the sacramental life. For adults, the process is called the RCIA, or Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. Would you like to learn more? Give Cris Wensel or Fr. Bob a call at the office!

Another Deuterocanonical Book
Last week our 1st reading was from Sirach, one of the books included in our Catholic Bible, in Orthodox Bibles, but not in Protestant Bibles or the Hebrew Scriptures. Today we hear from Wisdom, sometimes called ‘Wisdom of Solomon’, though even ancient experts like St. Jerome knew Solomon didn’t write it. Written in Greek during Greco-Roman times (specifically between the late 1st century BC & early first century AD), it defends the wisdom of Jewish scriptures and tradition against a prevailing negative prejudice. It also seeks to integrate some Greek thinking and philosophy into the tradition. ‘The corrupt body burdens the soul …’. Sounds like Plato? Sure enough! Is there any wisdom for our day and time? Our excerpt (pericope) today reminds us that rather than take pride in the achievements of modern science as a purely human accomplishment, we should remember that there is much we still do not know, and God is the source of all wisdom and understanding. True wisdom comes as a gift of the Holy Spirit.

Occasional Literature
Our 2nd reading, from Paul’s letter to Philemon is a perfect example of what scripture scholars call ‘occasional literature’. Paul was not writing for posterity, and might be surprised that this letter is in the Holy Scriptures. He wrote it on a particular occasion, to address a specific issue at the time. He was in prison. A runaway slave comes onto the scene. Paul introduces him to the faith, Onesimus becomes a Christian, and now Paul needs to send him back to his owner. But he wants all to go well for his new convert, so he sends along a letter of reference, if you will, asking Philemon to receive back his former slave as a new person, a brother in Christ. Read the whole (short) letter and notice a key point. Paul doesn’t want to command Philemon what to do, but appeals to him on the basis of love, so the decision will be his, not obedience to Paul. But then again, Paul is pretty convincing!

PRAYER FOR SELECTING A BISHOP
Lord, God, you are our Eternal Shepherd and Guide. In your mercy, grant to the Diocese of Rochester a shepherd who will walk in your ways and whose watchful care will bring us your blessing. Inspire our Holy Father, Pope Francis with wisdom, knowledge, discernment and right judgment. In Your love for us, give us the joy of receiving a shepherd who will be an example of goodness to your people and who will fill our hearts and minds with the truth of the gospel. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Friends of the Orphans

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support We Have Your BACKpack Ministry

This program was started by the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsford to address the nutritional needs of homeless children in the Rochester, Monroe County area. Although many children, particularly in the city, receive free or reduced price breakfasts and lunches during the school day, an alarming number of these kids have little or no food on the weekends. These kids are some of the neediest among us. In an effort to address this need, an elementary school was identified and selected for the program. The principal of School #54 helped identify the children who are without food on weekends. In 2012 this school had 35 kids identified as homeless. This program purchases high quality backpacks which are filled with nutritional food and snacks. The four steps taken during the week are (1) pick up the empty backpacks on Tuesdays; (2) food is picked up from Tops (this store has been generous in donations of food for the program) or Foodlink on Wednesdays; (3) pack the backpacks on Thursdays; (4) deliver filled backpacks to the school and the recipients on Fridays. The kids now have food for the weekend. The backpacks also include a small book and much needed school supplies with which they can do their homework. The program has had a positive impact. The principal states that the kids are more attentive, exhibit better behavior and are more focused on Monday mornings. In the 2013-2014 school year, this school will have 60 homeless kids. The program would like to address the needs of children in other schools but cannot commit to assisting other schools because of the lack of resources. The problem doesn’t just exist in the city, administrators at East Rochester and other districts are seeking similar help for their homeless or impoverished students. Administrators and parents have indicated that the love and kindness and respect this program provides these youngsters goes even further than the nutritional value of the food.

Angel Voices

It’s that time of year again and our Children’s Choir will begin rehearsing this week. If your young angel loves to sing, do encourage him or her to join the junior choir! Contact Bea Hack at bhack@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 231.

Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs

St. Paul names all three as excellent ways to sing and play to the Lord in our hearts, filled with the Holy Spirit. Our choir includes all three in its repertoire! Do you have a song in your heart? Does singing bring you joy? Your gift of music can grow amazingly when you put it to use in praise of God and in service of our communities’ prayer. You are invited! Contact Stephanie Honz, shonz@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 251.

Resurrection Choir

These singers add so much to our funeral litanies, and truly do minister to grieving families here at St. Louis. Contact Stephanie Honz, shonz@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 251or to find out how to get on the contact list for our funeral choir.

So, how well do you know the Bible, and facts about it? Take the following quiz and test yourself, then search the net and/or your Bible for the answers to see how well you did (they are easily found – if you answer at least half of them correctly, treat yourself to that slice of chocolate cake):

- What is the most-quoted Bible verse?
- Which are the synoptic Gospels?
- Jesus appeared to his unknowing disciples after the Resurrection on the road to what city?
- What is lectio divina?
- How many books in the New Testament?
- Who was the first apostle called by Jesus?
- Name at least three of the five books in the Torah, the “Law of Moses”.
- Name two of the three items in the Ark of the Covenant.
- What Psalm foretells the crucifixion of Jesus and that lots would be cast for His clothes?
- Name an Old Testament book that Jesus often quoted from.

“YOU” CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

As the summer begins to fade away and our thoughts turn to fall, school and other activities, please consider sharing your time and talents with Saint’s Place. For over 15 years, Saint’s Place has been assisting newly arrived refugees in the Rochester area. As our ministry continues to grow and thrive, we need more volunteers to help us achieve our many goals.

Volunteers are needed to help with deliveries and picking up donations. You must be able to lift. A four hour commitment once a week or once every two weeks would be a great help!

Volunteers are also needed at the clothing closet at St. John of Rochester and for sorting and setting up household items for the refugees at 46 South Main Street. Flexible hours.

There are also tutoring opportunities. Please call 385-6860 for more information about opportunities to volunteer. Stop by any morning, Mondays thru Thursdays (closed Friday), to see the operation. All are welcome!

SAINT’S PLACE NEEDS MORE VOLUNTEERS, YOU COULD BE THAT VOLUNTEER.

HELP US GIVE ALL OF GOD’S PEOPLE A FAMILY OF FRIENDS TO TURN TO FOR DIGNITY, COMFORT AND FELLOWSHIP.

If your Tuesday afternoon is available please consider volunteering to help us with this program.

This is a great opportunity to work with the children of our parish and share your faith with them; a rewarding job! It’s simple to do, a teacher’s manual and all materials are provided, and every classroom requires two teachers and an aide so it’s a great support system.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP!

In today’s Gospel, Jesus is speaking to people gathered at the table about the difficulties of following him. This group of people is suspicious about Jesus, looking to catch him doing something wrong. Jesus speaks to them in parables, emphasizing that although there is a right way to be a disciple and enter into the kingdom of his Father, it is a difficult path to follow. Many, even some of the guests at the table, reject the invitation. So Jesus turns to the crowds and speaks to them of discipleship. Jesus explains that, when it comes to making a choice for the Kingdom of God, nothing can get in the way.

When Jesus describes “hating” one's father and mother, he is not talking about feelings. Rather, he is emphasizing very strongly that choosing to be a disciple means that everything else—family, money, your own life—must come second. Jesus makes it very clear that being a disciple is not easy. It means to bear one's own cross. These difficult sayings of Jesus are followed by two brief parables (a person constructing a tower and a king marching into battle) that make an obvious point—don't start what you cannot finish. Discipleship is difficult and is something we can commit to only if we are prepared to put the Kingdom of God before everything else.

Setting priorities is not easy, at any age. Having fun may be important to all of us, but there are other things that are more important. We all have to learn to set priorities. In the Gospel for this Sunday, Jesus speaks to us about how, if we want to follow him, we have to make him our number-one priority. He also talks to us about how difficult this can be.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Adults: How do you try to discover what God is asking of you?

Child: When is it hard for you to know the right thing to do? Who helps you know?
