THANK YOU!!

When an individual or family moves into a new area, and begin looking for a church, a variety of things may draw them to one parish over another. But usually high on the list is hospitality – do those I encounter welcome me? Is there an atmosphere of warmth and outreach? Also high on the list – what’s happening? Is this an active place, with a wide spectrum of opportunities? On each count, St. Louis is outstanding, thanks to you! Thank you for calling this your spiritual home, and for the ways you contribute to making it a warm and loving home!

In the past our volunteer appreciation dinner has been during the winter, traditionally on the evening of some of the worst winter weather Rochester has to offer. Last year the evening began so well, but as folks were heading to their cars, it was time to dig out the brush for the inch or more of snow on the car. This year we are shifting to the summer, with a volunteer appreciation picnic. To all of our volunteers, whose efforts make this such a fantastic place to belong, THANK YOU!! We are thanking our volunteers, who are the life our St. Louis parish. But we are also inviting everyone, to help celebrate all of those who give of their time and talent. We are confident no one will need to drive on snow covered roads! :)

In addition, we are offering September as a parish awareness month. What about the life of the parish? One thing is for certain. When it comes to opportunities to grow in faith, we have something first class for everyone. A terrific school. Great faith formation programs for the children. First rate sacramental preparation programs. And we understand that learning and growing is a life-long venture. There are short term sessions for adults, like Fruit of the Vine, medium-size commitments such as Catholic Conversations, studies on the Bible, church history, or the Mass, or longer programs that take you deeper such as ChristLife, an amazing opportunity to grow in community and our relationship with Christ. For online opportunities, we offer FORMED.org, a tremendous resource. We also have many resources on our website and Facebook—check them out! When folks come to St. Louis and take a bulletin or check one out online, the conclusion is inevitable – this place is hopping! Thank you for making this such an appealing place to belong. Thank you for bringing Christ to life in our community as you support so many opportunities!

This September, try to learn one or two more things about this amazing place we call St. Louis Parish. Check out something you have never considered before. We are trying hard to create many entry points into a deeper relationship with Christ and the community He brings together. Dip your toe in the water, or dive in. If you did long ago, maybe you can become a life guard or swimming coach, helping others swim in the ocean of God’s grace! Bless you, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - September 16
The Highlands - Richard Caruso  Heather Heights - Darlene Huver
Grace at Work
To the broken hearted of his day, to the broken hearted ever since, and to us, Isaiah speaks a powerful message of hope. Not only can and will God transform the desert into a garden; God can transform human limitations as well. Grace can open blind eyes, clear ears that have been blocked, can free us from being bent over and limping to dancing with joy, lead us from silence to bursting with song.

In expressing this wonder of God’s love, Isaiah employs an unusual word, mogilalon, in his poem. Even if you understand Greek, it is unusual. Yet in the Septuagint, the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures used by most early Christians, that is the word used, sometimes translated into English as ‘mute’. It literally means ‘with difficulty of speech’. Isaiah envisions that when God brings the people back from exile, miraculous things will accompany the return: those ‘with difficulty of speech’ will sing for joy. Mark uses the same word in our Gospel today, echoing Isaiah. People seeing, hearing, singing and dancing – those images captured the return from exile for the people of Israel. For Christians, those images capture what is possible when we encounter Christ, and his transforming grace. Our first reading is perfect to bring to prayer this week.

Preferential Treatment
Our passage from James this week is easy enough to picture. Giving preferential treatment to the well to do happens all the time, even though the Bible is pretty clear that such is not the way we are called to act. Actually, reflecting on the scriptures, the teaching and example of Jesus, and guided by the Spirit, the Church doesn’t just tell us to show no partiality. It puts a finer point on the last part of this passage from James, and calls us to a preferential option for the poor. That is one of the basic foundations of the Church’s social teaching. Are you familiar with the other foundational principles of social justice? Try searching “Catholic Social Teaching” on the web, and see where it takes you!

Ephphatha
Another Greek word? Well, it is actually a Greek form of an Aramaic word. But did you know that one of the prayers in a Baptism is called the ‘Ephphatha rite’, or prayer over the ears and the mouth? As the presider touches an infant’s ears and mouth, he prays “As the Lord made the deaf to hear and the mute to speak, may he touch your ears to hear his word, and your mouth to proclaim his praise, to the glory of God the Father.” Have you ever heard something in the Bible as if for the first time, and a light went on? Or heard Jesus speaking to you through the scriptures, or sacraments, or in your heart? Then the first part of that prayer has been answered! He has opened your ears. Have you shared the experience with anyone? That would be living out the second part of the prayer. Don’t be afraid – share your spiritual experiences. The Lord has touched your mouth as well as your ears!

Next week’s tithing will support St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard

St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard, located at 890 Portland Avenue, serves an area of highly concentrated poverty in the 14621 Northeast quadrant of Rochester. St. Andrew’s mission is to provide the best nutrition they can offer. They also provide diapers, some baby needs, and include toiletries with each household order. Clients are offered recipe and food handling advice and access to free clothing, coupons, used books and magazines, and phone usage. Furniture assistance through the adjoining St. Vincent dePaul Society is also available. Most importantly, they try to build relationships with those who come in need.

To learn more about St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard, please contact Margaret Oberst at 338-1764 (Cupboard), 254-3093 (home) or email Margaret.Oberst@dor.org. Volunteers come in on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday from 9:00 – 11:30 am.

Next weekend, September 15/16, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 43 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Life is Messy Part 2: The Spirituality of Imperfection writing workshops

Find meaning in your life through storytelling

Come and see how the imperfections in our lives, in our situations, and in our relationships can lead us to deeper humility and compassion.

Bob Whelan and Cynthia Clarke will assist you in finding stories in your life and about your life that will help you begin to see yourself as God sees you. Humor plays a big part in this workshop, too. There will be time to think, to discuss, to share, and to write.

If you are seeking peace within the chaos, light within the darkness, and joy within the suffering, come give this a try!

When: Tuesdays, Sept. 11, 25, and Oct. 16
Time: 7:15-8:30 p.m.
Where: Parish Meeting Hall
We will provide materials.
For more information, contact Cynthia at Cynthia.Clarke@dor.org or 586-5675 ext 234

TRUTH
BEAUTY
GOODNESS

“If someone entered the Catholic Church to be part of a beautiful culture or a bulwark against a secularized culture, they probably won't survive the storm that has just hit us. Because ‘Beauty’ and ‘Truth’ were never, in and of themselves, sufficient.

Unless your hope is deeply rooted in a living relationship with a living and resurrected Redeemer who has triumphed through the cross and dwells with us in the Eucharist, you probably won't stay in his Body. Unless we have wrestled deeply or are willing to wrestle now with our own sin and the grave sin of others and the mystery of repentance and forgiveness, our Catholic faith won't survive. At this moment, ideological constructs, apologetics, our beautiful cathedrals and art and music are being experienced like salt in an open wound.

The one transcendental the larger world will believe is the one we need to embrace now: Goodness. Goodness which when truly lived is both an experience of God's beauty and of His truth.

In many ways we are living through something with huge consequences for the Church. Penance, humility, self-sacrifice, simplicity, heroic charity, justice, returning good for evil, real prayer, real faith and hope, a burning desire to receive and cooperate with all the graces made available to us through the sacraments and the Mass. The long obedience of genuine discipleship as individuals and especially as communities is the only fruitful response. The only way to rebuild trust for us and for others around us.”

Roger and Betsy Powers have been supporting the St. Louis Haiti Program with their gift of corn for about 48 years. But Betsy’s story is older than that.

Betsy has been a parishioner at Saint Louis for 75 years, as were her parents, grandparents, and great grandparents before her.

In fact, she watched our church being built, brick by brick, from her desk in the classroom window of Saint Louis School (at that time held in the manse.) She was so distracted that the nuns had quite a time getting her to pay attention to her lessons!

Roger joined St. Louis when he married Betsy in 1966. One of his favorite memories is when he hitched a ride on Father Callen’s motorcycle and they zipped through the farm checking up on the cornfields!

When Roger and Betsy heard Marcia Mendola describe the deplorable conditions of Haiti and how desperate the people were, they wanted to do something to help. They didn’t have much, but they did have corn. And while they couldn’t send their corn overseas, they could send money, and what better way to raise money than through the sale of corn.

Their children now carry on this beautiful ministry and so it has passed to a new generation of Power’s. Their daughter Shawn writes:

“Our participation in the Haiti project has made us realize how even a small family farm can help a country across the world. Before this adventure, we never knew our little cornfield could make a difference, but through Father Rick, Marcia and the Haiti Team, along with the wonderful parishioners of St Louis, we are able to help a nation desperate for food, medicine, and supplies.”

THANK YOU FOR GENEROUSLY SUPPORTING THE CORN SALE
