Can’t Put It Any Better!

How do I describe what it is like when we use a gift(s) given by God, the Holy Spirit really starts to flow through us, and we have an intense experience of God? William James would say the experience is transient, but takes one out of normal time and space; it is ineffable – can’t be put in words; it is noetic – a valuable insight is gained, and it is passive – the person is not in control. In the musical Billy Elliot, when Billy answers what it is like for him to dance, he sings Electricity (by Elton John), capturing the ineffable as well as anyone:

> I can't really explain it, I haven't got the words
> It's a feeling that you can't control
> And at the same time something makes you whole
> It's like that there's a music, playing in your ear
> Like Electricity, electricity
> Sparks inside of me, and I'm free, I'm free

> It's a bit like being angry; it's a bit like being scared
> Confused and all mixed up and mad as hell
> It's like when you've been crying
> And suddenly I'm flying, flying like a bird

> Like Electricity, electricity
> Sparks inside of me, and I'm free, I'm free

> It's like that there's some music, playing in your ear
> But the music is impossible, impossible to hear
> But then I feel it move me
> Like a burning deep inside

> Something bursting me wide open
> Impossible to hide
> And suddenly I'm flying, flying like a bird

> Like Electricity, electricity
> Sparks inside of me, and I'm free, I'm free

May God bless us all with experiences of the Holy Spirit that help us to lose ourselves and find ourselves in God, that set us on fire with God’s love, that allow us to be empty and filled with God; that set us free!

Blessings to you on Pentecost, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - May 26

Awesome!
How does one name, describe, communicate an overwhelming revelation of God, a sense of God’s awesome presence (aka: a theophany)? In the Bible, and elsewhere, wind and flame are two very common features. Why wind? In speaking with Nicodemus, Jesus says “The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes…” “An awesome awareness of God’s presence can come out of nowhere, and it can end without explanation or warning; we feel the presence, but are not in control of it. And fire? It too is powerful, gives light, warmth, can create a well cooked meal, can destroy a house or city; fire smelting ore into gold, so in many ways, it is an evocative image. Applying today’s 1st reading to our own personal Pentecosts, think internal, not external. Less the wind outside, blowing things around in a room, more the wind inside, rearranging our life in accordance to God’s divine plan, and then propelling us into mission. Don’t focus on what tongues of flame over the apostles would look like – think how Luke is telling us they were on fire with the Spirit, and consider how we too have access to the same fire in our lives!

My Gifts Are …
Yes … that is God’s Word to us on Pentecost. We are not the same; as St. Paul puts it, ‘there are different kinds of spiritual gifts’. How we use our gifts varies from person to person, again in Paul’s words, ‘there are different forms of service’. What happens when we discover and start using our gifts for others will play our in a variety of ways, ‘there are different workings, but the same God’. But most important: ‘we were all given to drink of the one Spirit.’ Picture St. Paul sitting across from you at the dinner table. “You have been given gifts! I know they are in there, even if you are convinced the Spirit somehow missed you! You have gifts, God gave them for some benefit, and when you begin to use them, your experience of belonging, of being a part of the body, of having an important purpose in life will set you on fire. An adventure will begin that you can hardly even imagine.”

Getting Involved
Our latest edition of our parish ministries booklet is available, listing a host of ways you connect more at St. Louis. Do pick up a copy!

Unwrap This One!
The gifts of the Spirit are priceless, their diversity amazing, what the gifts can accomplish, breathtaking. Best yet, here is one that we all get: the ability to forgive. Before you disagree, remember, it is a gift, meaning we need to accept it as a gift, that ability to forgive comes on God’s terms, not ours (so it requires prayer, and may take longer and require more assistance from others than we like), but it is a gift we all are given. Seems like the gift is hidden somewhere? Keep this under wraps, but often it is hidden in the confessional….

The Catechism Teaches
Here is what the Catechism has to say: (688) The Church, a communion living in the faith of the apostles which she transmits, is the place where we know the Holy Spirit: in the Scriptures he inspired; ♦ in the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses; ♦ in the Church’s Magisterium, which he assists; ♦ in the sacramental liturgy, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit puts us into communion with Christ; ♦ in prayer, wherein he intercedes for us; ♦ in the charisms and ministries by which the Church is built up; ♦ in the signs of apostolic and missionary life; ♦ in the witness of saints through whom he manifests his holiness and continues the work of salvation.

Looking Ahead: MOST HOLY TRINITY

One of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit is generosity. Thank you for your generosity, making it possible for our parish to be all that God calls us to be!

Attention Parishioners:
This Year’s Annual Sunshine Luncheon is Thursday, May 23

We are in the process of contacting last year’s volunteers, but please don’t hesitate to contact us if you would like to help and have not yet been reached. Please contact, Lisa DePalma at jdep4382@aol.com or 738-4884 or Ashley Vilkhu at Ashley.vilkhu@gmail.com or 402-5719.

Today on the Feast of Pentecost, we observe Diocesan Mission Sunday. For nearly fifty years we have been helping our Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil and the Sisters of Mercy in Chile with our prayers and sacrifices.

We are called to take part in the missionary work of the Church. We may not all have to move to another town or city to do so, but impelled by the Holy Spirit, each one of us is to move beyond our daily concerns, important as they are, to help others live in the faith that sustains us.

Our sisters are doing great things in the Church. They do them silently, like a mother for her family. With your help they will continue to do great things for God and for the people of God. Today, please be as generous as possible with your prayers and sacrifices.

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT
WAYNE COUNTY RURAL MINISTRY/ WILLIAMSON COME-UNITY CENTER

Wayne County Rural Ministry/Williamson Come-Unity Center - More than 50 years ago, seeds of harmony and unity were planted by a group trying to help the many needs of Wayne County's migrant farm workers. Although their cause was not a popular one, they persisted and grew, championing society's downtrodden. Along the way they began to serve all people in need in Wayne County and learned that there are more similarities than differences in diverse peoples. They serve the community in many ways:

- More than 4,000 people a year are served with free boxes of food on a monthly basis. These boxes provide enough food to feed the family 3 meals a day for a minimum of 3 days, and usually more. Over half the people served are children, senior citizens, or the disabled.
- Hot lunches are served Tuesday through Friday at noon.
- Day-old produce and bread is donated by area grocery stores and picked up by volunteers on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.
- Common Cents Thrift Shoppe is an orderly, boutique-like atmosphere where quality recycled clothing is distributed. Free clothing is given to people in crisis. The shop also stocks bedding, curtains, and some jewelry, along with household goods. All proceeds are used to support the other programs (covering about 1/3 of the funds needed annually).
- In addition, help is provided to people in need with emergency payments for heat, rent and prescription medications as funds are available.

Contributions of non-perishable food items, clothing and households items are always needed and welcome. In addition to the Shoppe proceeds, the rest of the needed funding is donated by individuals, churches, businesses and organizations. The balance is raised through grants and special events. Wayne County Rural Ministry/Williamson Come-Unity Center is a registered 501(c)3 organization. Thank you for your prayers for this ministry that serves so many in need in Wayne County, and for your assistance with Jesus' command to "feed my sheep".

I Can Do That!
Yes you can! If Eucharistic Ministry requires a special gift, perhaps it is the awareness of the presence of Christ: openness to bringing Christ’s presence to each one we meet, and of seeing Christ present in each person. (Being able to take direction with procedure helps too…) We’ve scheduled three times so you can learn more and be trained; hopefully one fits your schedule. This training will also help if you are being called to be a liturgical assistant (behind the scenes set up for Mass).

TRAINING FOR EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS AND LITURGICAL ASSISTANTS:

Wednesday, May 29, at 7:00 pm
Wednesday, June 5, at 7:00 pm
Tuesday, June 11, at 7:00 pm
All sessions will be held in Church.

If you can do a “short term” commitment, we need help over the summer and during “snow bird” season.

Questions about any of these ministries? Contact Bea Hack at 586-5675, ext. 231.

Good Friday Blood Drive Update

Our annual Good Friday Blood Drive on March 29, dedicated in loving memory of Ann Reddington, was generously served. The American Red Cross has notified us that we collected 67 pints and as a result helped 201 patients! We are grateful to the Reddington Clan for their enthusiasm and presence at the blood drive and for all who donated those precious “pints of life.”

- Many, many thanks to all who came to give blood!
- Save the Date, Monday, July 1, 2pm - 7 pm for summer blood drive in our air-conditioned Parish Meeting Hall!

Since Sr. Stan Mumuni’s Diocesan Mission visit last summer when our parish was so taken with her energy, enthusiasm and the importance of her work, the Family Faith families have taken her under their wing with a special year-long service project and devoted prayer. They sold poinsettias in December, Concessions at CYO Basketball games, and bracelets made with African beads this month to support her important work, and have also spiritually adopted them and continue their prayers for specific children. Their efforts have raised almost $4300 for Sr. Stan’s orphanage in Ghana, and we are so proud of all their hard work and dedication. Thank you to the entire Parish for generously supporting Sr. Stan, for standing up for the lives of these beautiful children, and for believing that every life has dignity and worth.

RECREATIONAL EDUCATION FALL SIGN-UPS

Registration for Fall Religious Education and Sacramental preparation programs is underway NOW! Although it seems like the school year has just begun, it’s time to start thinking about religious education and sacramental preparation for 2013-2014.

Children in Seasons of Faith and Living Faith have received, through their classes, re-registration materials. Material will also be given out the children in Crossroads as well as emailed to all Family Faith families. Registration materials include registrations for Religious Education programs as well as for our Sacramental Preparation programs. Please read all information carefully to ensure that your child’s registration goes smoothly.

If you are new to our parish or have children who will be coming of age to enroll into one of our programs, please call Sue Payne at the Ministry Center, 586-5675 for details of what you need to do to register.

You can register with your payment using the forms that you received through your child’s class.

Although we have completed our programs for this school year, don’t lose momentum thinking we’re done. Instead, get ready, set, go and take care of next year now. Be proactive about your child’s faith development by completing the registration forms as soon as possible. (Please note: our website is under construction, and the new website will be on-line in May. On line registration will be possible as soon as the new website is complete!)

Here are some guidelines and requirements for registering in our programs.

- Families must be registered parishioners of St. Louis Church.
- Public school children, Kindergarten through eighth grade, are expected to be in a religious education program every year.
- Sacramental preparation programs of First Penance, Confirmation and First Communion presume children are receiving their religious education through one of St. Louis’ programs or Catholic school, and build on what is being learned in these venues. Consequently, for a child to prepare to receive a sacrament, they must have been in a religious education program (through St. Louis Parish or Catholic school) for at least one year prior to the preparation program.
- Parents are asked to actively participate and help in our programs.

Confirmation Filled with the Holy Spirit!

Sacraments are always a beginning. Young people will grow in their understanding and experience of the sacraments as their faith deepens. Sacraments of Christian Initiation do not in any way mean a graduation or completion of the faith process, but celebrate the beginning of a lifetime lived in the generosity of a gracious God.

This year St. Louis Parish had 73 young candidates that celebrated Confirmation on Monday May 13th with Bishop Matthew Clark at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Our St. Louis candidates had been preparing since January. After exploring and practicing their faith over the course of the last several months our candidates had the experience of getting to know more about themselves each other and our parish community through the various events of the program.

As a parish community we can acknowledge and support our young candidates on their journey and find ourselves strengthened and enriched in our own faith journeys towards living out the gospel values and deepening our faith in a loving God. Congratulations Confirmands!!

The Wearing of the ... Red?

Did you wear some red today, Pentecost Sunday? Did you notice that the clergy’s vestments were red at Mass today? Did you wonder why? The Church's liturgical norms prescribe specific vestment colors for various celebrations, and we typically see the red vestments when symbolizing the shedding of the blood of Christ: Palm Sunday (when Christ entered Jerusalem to prepare for His death), Good Friday, any other commemoration of Christ's passion, and the votive Mass of the Precious Blood. Red is also used to mark the feasts of the apostles (except John) and other martyrs who offered their lives for the faith.

But red has a dual imagery: it also denotes the burning fire of God's love. For this reason, red vestments are worn on Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles and tongues of fire rested on their heads, for the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation (as happened this past Monday evening for 74 young women and men from St. Louis), and for votive Masses of the Holy Spirit.

There are two purposes of using different colors for vestments: first, the colors highlight the particular liturgical season and the faithful's journey through these seasons. Second, the colors highlight a particular event or mystery of faith, often interspersed within the seasons.

The information above comes from www.ewtn.com/library/answers/litcolor.htm, and is based on the norms of the GIRM (General Instruction on the Roman Missal).

How can we use this information to grow in our faith, one of the primary objectives of this Year of Faith? How often do we ask the Holy Spirit to be with us and to give us courage and wisdom?

As always, if you would like further information, see me after Mass sometime, or at ideacondave@gmail.com.

God bless, Deacon Dave
