A VOICE FROM THE PAST

Every once in a while, I like to bring forward some teaching of the past to help instruct our hearts in the present. Here is Pope Saint Leo the Great (fifth century) on Lent:

“Dear friends, at every moment ‘the earth is full of the mercy of God,’ and nature itself is a lesson for all the faithful in the worship of God. The heavens, the sea and all that is in them bear witness to the goodness and omnipotence of their Creator, and the marvelous beauty of the elements as they obey him demands from the intelligent creation a fitting expression of its gratitude.

“But with the return of that season marked out in a special way by the mystery of our redemption [ie, Lent], and of the days that lead up to the paschal feast, we are summoned more urgently to prepare ourselves by purification of spirit.

“The special note of the paschal season is this: the whole Church rejoices in the forgiveness of sins. It rejoices in the forgiveness not only of those who are then reborn in holy baptism but also of those who are already numbered among God’s adopted children.

“Initially people are made new by the rebirth of baptism. Yet there is still required a daily renewal to repair the shortcomings of our mortal nature, and whatever degree of progress has been made there is no one who should not be more advanced. All must therefore strive to ensure that on the day of redemption no one may be found in the sins of his former life.

“Dear friends, what the Christian should be doing at all times should be done now with great care and devotion, so that the Lenten fast enjoined by the apostles may be fulfilled, not simply by abstinence from food but above all by the renunciation of sin.

“There is no more profitable practice as a companion to holy and spiritual fasting than that of almsgiving. This embraces under a single name of mercy many excellent marks of devotion, so that the good intentions of all the faithful may be of equal value, even where their means are not. The love that we owe both God and one another is always free from any obstacle that would prevent us from having a good intention. The angels sang: ‘Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.’ The person who shows love and compassion to those in any kind of affliction is blessed, not only with the virtue of good will but also with the gift of peace.

“The works of mercy are innumerable. Their very variety brings this advantage to those who are true Christians, that in the matter of almsgiving not only the rich and affluent but also those of average means and the poor are able to play their part. Those who are unequal in their capacity to give can be equal in the love within their hearts.”

Christ’s peace to you, Father Bob Kennedy

Home at Last!
For the guardians of tradition and authors of the scriptures, Israel’s time in Egypt came to represent alienation from God. The first Passover, in flight, represented escape from slavery. The Passover we hear in our 1st reading today is the culmination of events, God’s promise of freedom fulfilled. From alienation and slavery, to a time of testing in the desert; finally, freedom in the Promised Land. Think of folks in our world today, oppressed by the slavery of violence and conflict. Pray they may experience a first Passover, escape from a life that has become untenable. Pray too that one day they will experience what our brothers and sisters did millennia ago, when they entered the Promised Land and could finally eat the yield of the land. Other connections the reading invites us to consider: crossing the Red Sea, crossing the Jordan, crossing into new life through the waters of Baptism.

Be Reconciled!
Hear the passion in our 2nd reading. St. Paul has experienced becoming a new creation, and wants us all to know the experience as well. He has experienced reconciliation in his own life at the deepest level, and passionately calls us to be reconciled. This is a great reading to pray with in preparation for our Tri-Parish Retreat.

Welcome Home!
Who is the prodigal? The son, who spent his inheritance recklessly, wastefully, extravagantly or, the father, who welcomed his son home lavishly, generously, unsparingly? Or are we to see that when we recklessly waste the legacy of God’s grace in our life, God is equally lavish in restoring us? Today’s Gospel parable, addressed to those troubled by Jesus welcoming sinners and eating with them has spoken to believers in every age. The son’s hurtful self-centered behavior, his finally coming to his senses, the father running to meet his wayward son, reconciliation as a movement from being dead to being found alive, even the older son’s frustration – all have helped open eyes and open hearts for those willing to step into the parable, and find themselves there. It can also provide inspiration to pray for those who have wandered, pray for those awaiting a loved one’s coming to their senses and returning, perhaps even whisper a prayer for those who find such overflowing love and mercy too much.

You are invited to join our Adult Choir on a pilgrimage through Michigan this September! The choir will be singing at historic St. Anne’s Catholic Church on the beautiful Victorian Mackinac Island.

We will bus from Rochester over to the charming Bavarian village of Frankenmuth, Michigan. This delightful town is home to Bronner’s Christmas store, the largest in the world! We will celebrate mass at the famous “Cross in the Woods” along our way to the island. Three nights on the island with lunch at the famous Grand Hotel and lots of activities for you to choose from are included in your stay. If you have seen the iconic movie, “Somewhere in Time”, you are aware that cars are not allowed on the island. You may rent horses, bikes, take a carriage ride, or simply sit and enjoy the terrific waterfront scenery.

We will complete the trip with an overnight at Thunder Bay Caribou resort where we will stay in rustic lodges and enjoy a 5-course home cooked meal paired with Michigan wines and accompanied by storytelling by the family who owns the ranch.

The trip is scheduled for September 4-9, 2019 and is all inclusive for $1,250.00. Space is limited, but we would love to have you join us!
Please contact Stephanie Honz shonz@rochester.rr.com for a brochure and more information.

The Beatitudes create heaven here on earth. Jesus teaches us a way of living, loving and being that help us to “live life to the full”. Shaped by the Beatitudes, we learn how to welcome into our broken world the gifts of healing, wholeness and well-being. As a Christian people we are called to become a beacon of light especially for those who suffer in darkness or who lost a loved one, experience unresolved grief from past offenses or suffer from painful memories. This three-nighttime parish retreat/mission will provide tools and techniques to help each person to become a generous distributor of God’s healing mercy and love.

Hungry for a Reading Challenge?

Maybe it would be fun to join a reading challenge of 19 Catholic books for 2019 so we could all dive a little deeper into our faith and work our intellectual muscles a bit.

Here’s how it works: Choose one book for each of 19 categories that you can find by googling “cathLit”! You can choose from the suggestions listed in each category, or pick your own read that fits the bill. If you want to share your Catholic reads on social media you can use #cathlit2019.

If 19 books in a year is daunting, just try for 8, or 4. Even if you just read one, you’ll be better off than before!

“Only God knows the good that can come about by reading one good Catholic book.” – St. John Bosco

(P.S. This was suggested by one of our RCIA Elect. Way to go!)

Don’t forget that you can read ebooks for free on FORMED.org

Visit FORMED.org during Lent for a treasure chest of great resources! In addition to top-notch studies, movies, and audio talks and dramas, you can also find ebooks on interesting Catholic topics.

If you haven’t found just what you’re called to do this Lent, why not try browsing through some of the great offerings found on FORMED.org.

If you haven’t set up an account, just visit stlouischurch.formed.org. It’s free and easy!

For more information or help getting on FORMED.org, contact Kathryn at Kathryn.mcalarney@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 224

Explore faith topics over a cup of coffee with a great group of folks.

If you are a thriving Catholic, or just starting your journey, on the brink of leaving the Church, or coming back home, please come and join the conversation.

A super short video launches a lively discussion about the questions we face and the longing we have to live a life of meaning. Each session is a new topic, so drop in any week!

Where: The Manse (brick building to the right of the main entrance of the church)

When: Sundays, 10:00-10:50 (between the 9:00 and the 11:15 Masses)
Do You Hunger for Truth?

This spring, as so many of our young children are preparing to receive their First Holy Communion, our whole community becomes more aware of this sacrament. Do you wish you knew more about what we believe about the Holy Eucharist as Catholics? Perhaps you missed this great series we offered last fall or just couldn’t get away to attend our classes.

Now You Can See For Yourself!

Visit stlouischurch.org/presence to view this insightful series of three 30-minute videos that will change how you experience Mass!

For more information, contact Kathryn at Kathryn.mcalarney@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 224

SAINT’S PLACE - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are in dire need of male volunteer to help with delivering and picking up furniture donations. With the arrival of spring, the demand to pick up furniture increases by two-fold. Saint’s Place is doing 8 deliveries of furniture a week to refugees and the poor and homeless in Rochester. We could do more if we had more help. The shortage of male volunteers is hampering our ability to help more people.

The only qualification is being able to lift dressers, sofas, tables and chairs etc. (not by yourself!!!) It is usually a three-hour commitment. We have 4 morning shifts and are looking to add two afternoon shifts. (1-4 pm) If you can and are willing to make a real difference in the lives of some very needy people, consider volunteering once a week, twice a month… we are flexible.

For information about volunteering, please call Michele Quinn at Saint’s Place (585 385-6860).
